VIRGINIA NEWS

Governor Westmoreland Davis took his first flight in the air yesterday when he accepted an invitation to go up in a battle plant at the State Fair Grounds, where a diversified military and athletic program was staged by the 850 West Virginians of the Richmond schools training detachment. For thirty minutes the Governor soared with Lieutenant Bourware, pilot, from Langley Field, circling over the city and the country roundabout at an altitude of 3,000 feet. His appearance in the plane before the crowd of 10,000 people, in the grandstand and around the drill field, created a sensation and thunderous applause followed.

RESOLUTIONS

Adopted by the Chamber of Commerce at a Meeting Held September 4, 1918.

Whereas, We have read the editorial appearing in the Alexandria Gazette of September 3, 1918, under the caption "Cost of Cleaning Up" which appears to us as singularly misleading, unjust, unwarranted and impolitic, to say the least, and

Whereas, The Chamber of Commerce has knowledge of the splendid work accomplished by the United States Public Health Service and the Virginia State Board of Health in arresting the spread of promising epidemics and the inoculation and vaccination of hundreds to prevent a recurrence of the recent troubles, and

Whereas, The cost to the city for this work bears but small ratio to the total cost of the work planned for the health of Alexandria and vicinity to be defrayed by outside agencies and the expenditures of which the fine results to be attained amply justifies, be it

Resolved, That the City Council is hereby petitioned to continue its cooperation with and its loyalty to the public health authorities in the splendid work they are engaged in doing for this community, and further,

Resolved, That the attention of the Corporation Court be directed to the failure of the Police Court to compel property owners to tap sewers, and further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be published in the Alexandria Gazette.

THE GERMAN RETREAT

Falling Back in Haste And in Confusion in Some Places.

London, Sept. 4.—Stunned by the cave-in of the Wotan switch line, which was the Gibraltar of their whole westeren defense, the Germans are last night retreating in haste—and at some points in confusion—along the sixty-five mile front from Ypres to the Canal du Nord near Peronne, with oply here and there a Prussian guard unit fighting to the last ditch, preferring death to surrender.

They have abandoned Lens, once the gem of France's "black belt." The ruins of the coal city still reek with gas. The British are marking time in the westeren outskirts, waiting till the shambles is hewithier ground to occupy.

Queant, the southern hinge of the switch line, is in British hands.

In Flanders, the British and Americans are in Wulverghem, at the foot of Messines Ridge in Estaires, seven and a half miles southeast of Armentieres and in Richebourg-St. Vaast two miles west of Neuve Chappelle, where the bones of thousands of Canadian and Australian heroes—the flower of the "first 100,000"—are awaiting vengeance.

Lue west of St. Quentin, the central bastion of the main German defense system to which the Teutons are now falling back, the French have crossed the Somme at Epenancourt, four and a half miles northeast of Nesle. Further south, the French are across the Canal du Nord and have bitten themselves into the outskirts of Genvry two miles north of Noyon.

Between them, the French and British have taken fully 17,000 prisoners in two days, the British approximately 15,000 and the French the balance.

The allied attacking line is now 150 miles long from the region of Ypres to that of Soissons.

In the Rappahannock River, near Irvington, just off the mouth of Carter's Creek, a big new four-masted schooner is lying bottom upwards. The schooner was en route from Boston to Norfolk for coal. When off the Virginia Capes she became the victim of a German U-boat. A revenue cutter later discovered the ship and towed her to a point off Wachaprague, Accomac County. The wrecking tug, Rescue, of Norfolk, under contact, towed the vessel across Chesapeake Bay and into the Rappahannock river, where the work of righting her and putting her in sailing order is in progress. It is said when the vessel sank after being torpedoed, the masts stuck in the bottom of the ocean and dynamite had to be used to raise her.

The general The general arrangements for the entire week are in the hands of A. B. Nies, who is the camp athletic director at Camp Humphreys. A list of the committee to assist the War Community Service under the various features for the week will be published later, together with fuller details of events.

Mr. Brockett, chairman of the work on colored clubs, reported progress, and anticipates both the Odd Fellows' and Elks' Clubs will be ready to turn over to the colored soldiers early next week.

Plans for adding to the sleeping accommodations for both white and colored troops were considered, as the other available sleeping quarters were taxed to their limit last Saturday and Sunday nights.

Those present were: Carroll Pierce, R. L. Payne, Gardner L. Boothe, T. E. Dyson, L. Bendheim, C. C. Lamond, A. D. Brockett, Chaplains Hammitt and Fleck and A. B. Nies of Camp Humphreys, R. A. Hoyer and Homer H. Van Wie. Mr. Boothe acted as chairman of the meeting, in the absence of Judge Harley, who is out of the city. Mr. Hoyer as secretary for unfinished business, after which he introduced Mr. Van Wie, as the new secretary, to take charge of the new business to come before the meeting, and the future work of the office.

DISILLUSION IN GERMANY

Empire Menaced by Trouble That Surpasses Russian Overthrow.

Paris, Sept. 4.—A dispatch from Berne, Switzerland, to Le Matin, quotes a prominent Swiss citizen coming from Germany as declaring that in the last six weeks a formidable disillusion has swept over Germany.

If the German military situation does not improve, the informant said, trouble that may surpass the acts of the Bolsheviki in Russia menaces the German empire.

KAISERIN HAS RELAPSE

Royal Family Cancels Engagements as Worse Condition is Feared.

Copenhagen, Sept. 4.—The German Empress still is very ill, says the Berlin Vossische Zeitung. Although some days ago her condition began to improve, new complications have supervened and she still is confined to her bed.

There is no immediate danger of a fatal termination to the illness, the newspaper declares, but a serious relapse is feared. All engagements of the royal family have been cancelled.

Monday night Thomas Gilliam was killed by Halawell Levi in Petersburg. Both parties are negroes. Levi had reason to doubt the faithfulness of his wife, and Monday night at 11:30 o'clock, found her and Gilliam at the house of a negro woman. He called Gilliam to the street, and when he came out him in the throat and then stabbed him over the heart. Death resulted quickly. Levi was arrested and is now in jail.

RICHMOND THEATER

A real southern camp meeting is filmed in "Green Eyes," the new Paramount picture starring Dorothy Dalton, which will be shown at the Richmond Theater tonight. Thomas H Ince produced the picture and with his usual determinaton to leave nothing undone that would render the film more convincing, he engaged nearly one thousand colored men and women and took them to a small town near Los Angeles, where, in a shaded grove, a regular old-fashioned gathering of this character was put on. A good clean comedy, according to physicians, is worth an army of physicians. If that be true, then "His Smothered Love," the newest Paramount-Mack Sennett comedy featuring Chester Conklin, Harry Gribbon and Marie Prevost, is worth two armies of Esculapians. It follows therefore, that if you want to laugh and grow fat you should see "His Smothered Love" at the Richmond tonight, which is an added attraction.

Besides cigars, cigarettes, smoking and chewing tobacco, the soldier may obtain at these huts soap, safety razors and blades, shoe laces, candles, all kinds of brushes, shoe polish, canned jams, jellies and fruits, chocolate, sweet crackers and many other articles.

COUNCIL ORGANIZES

H. R. Burke Chosen President And C. W. Wattles Vice President—G. E. Warfield Elected a Member to Fill Vacancy Caused by Resignation of Mr. Smith.

The new City Council was formally organized with the election of officers last night. The newly elected officers in the lower branch are as follows: Harry R. Burke, president; C. W. Wattles, vice president; Daniel R. Stansbury, clerk; W. L. Craven, messenger.

The new council with sixteen members present was called to order by D. R Stansbury, clerk, and the oath of office administered to the eight newly elected members by Howard W. Smith, the retiring president of that body.

The newly elected members are: L. Ruben, W. J. McCaffrey, C. W. Wattles, William Desmond, W. C. Baggett, C. J. Sullivan, N. J. Lawler and C. W. Fletcher. It marks the first term in council for Messrs. McCaffrey, Baggett, Sullivan and Fletcher.

Mr. Smith nominated for President Mr. Burke, whom he said he had been associated with in city council for the past ten years. Mr. Burke's election was unanimous and he made a short speech expressing gratification over his election and promising to discharge the duties of the office to the best of his ability.

For vice president Mr. Desmond nominated Mr. Wattles and Mr. Wattles declined and nominated Mr. Lawler. Mr. Lawler, however, declined and insisted that Mr. Wattles accept the nomination whereupon the nominations were closed and Mr. Wattles was unanimously elected.

Mr. Ballenger nominated Daniel R. Stansbury for clerk and he was chosen without opposition and Mr. Smith nominated W. L. Craven for messenger who also was chosen without opposition.

Councilman Smith then introduced a resolution that a committee of two members from each branch report to council on the advisability of employing a city manager adopting some form of commission government. It was adopted, and the chair appointed Messrs. Wattles and Fletcher on that committee.

In introducing the resolution Mr. Smith stated that it is practically impossible for members of council to give the detailed attention to the work that it requires. He explained that it has no effect on city council. The details of all work of council are looked after by the city manager he explained. Owing to the rapid growth of the city at this time its affairs need something more than the time councilmen can now give the work. He also stated that business managers are working satisfactory in other Virginia cities.

Afterward Councilman Smith, for the past ten years a member of that body from the first ward, tendered his resignation owing to the fact that he recently was appointed Commonwealth's attorney, George E. Warfield was elected to fill the vacancy. Mr. Warfield was nominated by Mr. Ruben.

On motion of Mr. Ruben, Mr. Smith, the retiring member, was given permission to speak and he made a short address expressing regret at leaving council aften ten years being a member of that body. He told the new members the importance of attending the meetings regularly owing to the peculiar conditions under which the city is now working.

Petition for increase of salary for Joshua Sherwood, superintendent of alms house, was referred to joint committee on finance and poor.

Resolution appropriating $100 for contingent expenses for corporation court was referred to finance committee.

Petition of Joseph Rodgers to reshingle half of roof of house 1009 King street was referred to street committee. Permission was granted Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett to erect addition to porch at 408 Duke street

The resolution of Councilman Smith follows: Resolved, That a special committee of two members from each branch of the city council be appointed by the respective presidents to investigate and report to council on the advisability of employing a city manager or adopting some other modified form of government provided for by existing law. Said committee shall consider the systems now in use in other cities in this state and report on the respective merits of each.

"The committee so appointed is requested to report its findings in writing to city council within thirty days from the passage of this resolution.

"The sum of $100 or as much thereof as may be necessary is hereby appropriated to be expended by said committee in obtaining copies, traveling expenses, etc."

Board of Aldermen.

But one change was made in the Board of Aldermen. F. F. Marbury, the present president, was re-elected to succeed himself. C. J. W. Summers was chosen vice president, in place of W. W. Ballenger.

There were no nominations for clerk and Alderman Ballenger, who has been clerk pro tem since last November, will continue to act.

George W. Bontz was re-elected messenger.

The business presented caused no discussion.

Messrs. Anderson and Harrison were named as the members of a joint committee to consider the advisability of placing Alexandria under a city manager.

HAIR CAUGHT IN FAN

Washington Girl Sent to Hospital With Painful Wound.

Miss Louise Moore, of 1255 I street northeast, Washington, lost most of her hair, had her scalp nearly torn off and suffered painful injuries when her hair was caught in an electric fan yesterday afternoon.

Miss Moore had washed her hair at her place of employment, 613 F street, and was standing in front of an electric fan drying it. Her hair was caught in the revolving blades. Before she had time to think her hair was being pulled out by the roots and she was being slowly drawn towards the fan.

She was saved from having her face badly injured by the presence of mind of one of her companions who was working in another room. Hearing Miss Moore's shrieks and frantic calls for help she rushed into the room and seeing the situation clutched the fan and turned off the current.

Miss Moore was taken to the Emergency Hospital for treatment.

FORBIDS GARNISHEEING PAY

McAdoo Rules Legal Action Cannot Be Taken Against Railroad Men.

Garnisheeing of railroad employes' pay was forbidden yesterday by Director General McAdoo as a means of eliminating much legal work heretofore necessary.

At the same time it was made plain that employes who do not pay their bills will be dismissed, and this, it is believed, will prove sufficient protection for merchants and other holding bills against railroad men. Wages until actually paid over to employes are held to constitute government funds against which legal action may not be taken.

STRANGE ILL RAIDS FAMILY

Three Children Dead, Others in Peri From Unnamed Malady.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Sept. 4.—Three children of Thomas McHugh, of 9 Chestnut street, Wilkes-Barre township, have died within ten days, two are at death's door, and a brother of Mrs. McHugh, who lives with the family, also is in a precarious condition, all victims of a disease for which physicians in charge have not assigned a name. The children range between 5 and 14 years of age, while Edward Conahan, the oldest of the patients is 31 years old. State health authorities have been asked to investigate and Dr. Charles Miner will take charge of the cases.

Fire caused by the ignition of creosote by an exhaust from an engine yesterday damaged a part of a pier under construction at the army supply depot near Norfolk. The loss is estimated at more than $50,000 and completion of the pier will be delayed several weeks. In fighting the flames firemen found it necessary to dynamite concrete sections of the pier.

John Driver Gowl, aged 7, son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Gowl, of near Burtner's Mill, died at the Rockingham Memorial Hospital Sunday evening from injuries received when he was run over by an automobile owned and driven by J. W. Frank. At the inquest the coroner's jury declared the car to have been negligently and carelessly driven.

ALLIES SMASHING ON

Haig's Troops Reach New Switch Line to Which Foe is Fleeing.

London, Sept. 4.—A British armored car is repored to have entered Marquoin, according to a dispatch from the British front today.

(Marquoin is on the main highway runing from Arras to Cambrai, slightly more than half way between these two cities.

London, Sept. 4 (11:27 a. m.)—The northern pillar of the German line is seriously threatened and the Germans are in full retreat there, says a dispatch from the front today. Cambrai will be taken within two days, the dispatch predicts.

The speed of the British advance continues. The British have reached Lagache, southwest of Marquoin. The latter town is only five and a half miles northwest of Cambrai.

London, Sept. 4.—Between Peronne and the Sensee river the British are continuing their successful advances against the Germans, according to Field Marshal Haig's communication.

The British have now reached the general line of Ytres (south of Bertincourt) Beaumetz-Les-Cambrai, Baralle, Rumancourt and Lecluse.

The capture of the town of Quea[illegible] the southern support of the famous German switch line before Cambrai and Duoai, is announced in an official statement from Field Marshal H[illegible] today.

The British have captured the c[illegible] of Lens, which was captured by the Germans, the British moving [illegible]

In the Lys salient, where the Germans are retreating, the British advanced today and now hold the western outskirts of Neuve Chapelle. The British have captured Richebourg St. Vaast.

The new switch line behind the Drocourt-Queant line to which the Germans are believed to be retiring and which was recently completed is some six miles to the rear of the old line. It runs from Brebieres, five miles southeast of Drocourt, southwards to Mont-[illegible]denbu[illegible] court [illegible] west of Marcoing.

The Second Prussian Division, considered one of the enemy's best, was rushed up from Cambrai but the men were so worn that they were easily pushed back. Hundreds of prisoners were taken today but probably not so many as yesterday.

Opinion is that the Germans have few, if any, fresh reserves available on this front. It is not believed the line of the Sensee canal can be strongly defended If this is taken it will be possible effectually to shell Cambrai.

SUTHARD—In sad but loving remembrance of our dear daughter, VIRGINIA, who departed this life four years ago, September 2, 1914.

Whenever we speak your name
Our eyes with tears are wet,
Oh, Virginia, how we love you
And love cannot forget.

You suffered much, you murmured not,
As we watched you day by day,
Until at last with broken hearts
We saw you pass away.
By Her Father and Mother.

Sleep on, dear Virginia, sleep,
Though grandmother is left to weep;
God saw your suffering was too great
And bade you enter the pearly gate.
My heart is aching with grief and pain
Rest in peace, dear Virginia, until we meet again.

NEW CITY GOVERNMENT

The two boards of the new City Council met last night. This was a new departure, as for many years the two bodies have met biennially at noon on the first day of July and since the adoption of the new constitution on the first day of September.

The first of the month fell on Sunday this year, and Monday being Labor Day, it was determined that the new council meet on Tuesday night, September 3d.

The present city fathers seem to be of one accord, and there is every reason to believe that they will work in harmony throughout their terms.

DR. MUEHLON'S COMMENTS

Dr. Muehlon, who, before the war and in the early part of the war, was a director of the Krupp Works, and for that reason on terms of close acquaintance with many of the leading men in the empire has published his diary.

It was written with no thought of publication, but after some months he found it was impracticable to remain in his own country, and he left his business and retired to Switzerland. After four years the conduct of his Government and attitude of the nation itself moved him to publish his diary.

Among the illuminaitng comments he makes in this record, nothing is truer, or more disgraceful, than this: "When we (the Germans) find ourselves the weaker party in any affair we demand of the other party treatment which we never vouchsafe when we are the stronger."

It is suggested that the debtor of the parable who was forgiven a debt of 10,000 talents because he could not pay, and begged for mercy, but who turned a deaf ear to the appeals of a man who owed him 100 pence, and threw him into prison, was a typical German.

Some of Dr. Muehlon's other details in depicting the present day German and his Government are the following:

"If German policy consisted merely of selfishness and calculation, it would, because of the lack of higher and nobler aims, still be less contemptible than it is today by reason of its strong infusion of brutality.

"We have dealt more unscrupulously than even Bismarck did.

"The Germans circulate truth or falsehood as it suits the purposes of the moment.

"Disgusting hypocrisy and cunning, contempt for the people, and criminal anxiety manifest themselves in this official piety.

"It aims at nothing but the sanctification of falsehood, the adoration of brutality, the dedification of William II.

"f the Germans now gain the hegemony of Europe a general exodus of Europeans will occur. But beyond the boundaries of the New Germany the Germans would not dare show themselves.

No one in Germany believes there is a more effective instrument than corruption."

THE ALLIES' STEAM ROLLER

Dispatches from the western battle front printed in yesterday afternoon's and this morning's papers have sent thrills through the breast of patriotic persons throughout the land. The supposed "invincible" German army is tottering and giving indications of approaching collapse. It was a cruel expression of Teutons a year or more ago, "We have' bled France white." Germany is now showing whiteness.

The old Hindenburg line was the line on which it was believed the Germans relied as an impassable barrier, in case they had to retire that far. It was the line from which they set out on March 21, and it was supposed to be their Gibraltar. But this impregnable line has already been pierced at several points. It is broken at Lens and at Queant, and it is threatened north and south by an advancing flood of armies which will not be denied. The difference between last years A'llied advance and this year's illustrated by the fall of Lens. The Allies made desperate efforts to capture Lens last year, but the Germans could not be dislodged. As a railway center and the principal city in a large coal region, it was of such military and industrial importance that Hindenburg determined to hold on to it at any cost. That it has fallen now is significant of the change in the relative strength of the combatants.

There is no sign of letting up on the part of the Allies and daily signs of weakening on the part of the enemy. They are losing ground every day and losing large numbers of prisoners and guns and vast amounts of war material. The decisive, knockout blow is still to come; but Hindenburg is reeling from the ceaseless attacks, and he does not know at what moment the finishing stroke may fall. His heart is getting weak, his breath is short,, his strength is going. Who know when Foch may reach the Prussian solar-plexus and finish the business?

Germany and the German armies are now being bled white. Every vein and artery is being drained, and when the debacle comes it may be as sudden as it will be overwhelming and irreparable.

Your Winter's Coal Supply

On account of rulings of the U. S. Fuel Administration, it seems doubtful if Virginia will receive sufficient anthracite coal to supply the demands. If present rulings are maintained, this shortage will be very great in Alexandria and we earnestly advise our customers to put in a reasonable amount of bituminous coal as a safeguard against a coal shortage next winter.

We are now securing some very fine bituminous coal which we believe will work in all characters of coal burners but the latrobe stoves.

"The Job for You, Son!"--

Working in the Dupont Plants is actual 100% war work, and contributes to the success of the war as effectively as anything you could wish for, outside of actual fighting. It offers to those who cannot go "Over There," an opportunity to do something worth while.

The Government Plant at Penniman, operated by the Dupont Company, and the Dupont Company Plant at Hopewell are mammoth propositions that contribute largely to the supply of ammunition for the soldiers "Over There." If you can't fight, you can at least help make munitions.

If you want to be a part of these great, big institutions and their undertaking, and if you feel that you want to do your part, don't delay another minute calling at the nearest United States Employment Office or in mailing the blank below. Signing does not obligate you in the least, but will bring you full information about these occupations.

Do you want to get into war work? Here is the opportunity for you. Avail yourself of this immediately and help the boys "Over There." The Du Pont projects in Virginia offer you this chance, in fact, they urge you to consider the possibility that awaits you here to help in a vital way to win the war. This is most essential, as the boys must have munitions with which to "Go Over the Top." Do something besides sitting back cheering while the war is going on.

Work "Over Here" Win the War

Don't think that because you are not an experienced mechanic that this advertisement is not directed to you—it is, and the man who is a clerk, a salesman or in any of the lighter occupations is just as welcome at the Dupont Plants as the most skilled mechanic. We teach you so that you become an efficient operator in a remarkably short time. Operators receive excellent starting rates, and advance quickly to higher salaries. Living conditions are good; board and lodging cost $6.50 to $7.00 a week. Recreation facilities are unequaled—boating, dancing, baseball, bathing and a crowd of fellow-workers that you will like to associate with, in this 100% war work.

Mrs. A. Waring, 304 N. Patrick St., says: "I suffered awfully from backache and inflammation of the bladder. I used to be in such misery during these attacks I had to have injections of morphine to relieve the pain. The pains in the top and back of my head nearly drove me frantic. I often got so dizzy I could hardly keep from falling. Nothing did me any good until I got Doan's Kidney Pills at E. S. Leadbeater & Son's Drug Store. Several boxes stopped that awful pain in my back and head and made my kidneys normal."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Waring had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

A NERVOUS WRECK

From Three Years' Suffering, Says Cardui Made Him Well.

Texas City, Tex.—In an interesting statement, Mrs. G. H. Schill, of this town, says: "For three years I suffered untold agony with my head. I was unable to do any of my work.

I just wanted to sleep all the time, for that was the only ease I could get, when I was asleep. I became a nervous wreck just from the awful suffering with my head.

I was so nervous that the least noise would make me jump out of my bed. I had no energy, and was unable to do anything. My son, a young boy, had to do all my household duties.

I was not able to do anything until I took Cardui. I took three bottles in all, and it surely cured me of those awful headaches. That has been three years ago, and I know the cure is permanent, for I have never had any headache since taking Cardui. . .

Nothing relieved me until I took Cardui. It did wonders for me."

Try Cardui for your troubles—made from medicinal ingredients recommended in medical books as being of benefit in female troubles, and 40 years of use has proven that the books are right. Begin taking Cardui today. NC-134
